THE following is M. Witte's private opinion publicly expressed of our versatile president: "From a moral standpoint, the president of the United States is a statesman of large calibre. Born in a time when politicians are more children of their century than of their history, he owes his high position, which he fills more worthily every day, exclusively to his personal qualities as revealed in actions requiring decision and clear vision. The world recognizes this. When one speaks with President Roosevelt, he charms through the elevation of his thoughts and through that transparent philosophy which permeates his judgment. He has an ideal and strives for higher aims than a commonplace existence presents. In the stubborn struggles of our day, men like Mr. Roosevelt have no leisure, for they are soldiers who cannot be relieved from the danger line."

THE Danville News is the worst quitter in the business. Instead of hitting back in a controversy which it began, and which we were really enjoying, the "yellow" of that paper is shown in the following feeble and nonsensical response: "Some people are so warped of soul and narrow of mind, that they can easily look straight through the eye of a needle without squinting. With such it is a waste of time to bandy words, so we consign the editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL to the guardianship of his elder brother of whom he is so proud: trusting that his paucity of knowledge concerning the location of the educational institutions of this country may yet be relieved by a more intimate personal acquaintance. It is never too late to do good."

THE amount of money per capita in circulation is larger now than in the history of the country. It is $31.40 per head, and if you haven't yours it is your fault. Because of the outpour of gold, money is also becoming cheap, and the thing for which money is exchanged relatively dear. One of the vagaries of the present monetary situation is the demand at the Federal Treasury for silver dollars. The Southern planters want these dollars to pay their Negro cotton pickers, who find more substantial and joyful remuneration in metallic money and plenty of it than in paper currency, which has not appreciable weight nor responsive jingle.

THE dying embers of hate, engendered by the civil war are nearly burned out, as is evidenced by striking instances of frequent occurrences. The ex-Confederates of Georgia have just extended an invitation to the Grand Army of the Republic to hold their next annual encampment at Atlanta. A wonderful change indeed have 40-odd years brought, when the "Yankee Army" went "marching through Georgia" before it did so without invitation and with considerable resistance offered.

EDITOR LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, has placed us under additional obligations for courtesies extended. For general cleverness he is in a class all by himself.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER fears a period of hard times and industrial depression in 1907-8, following over-production in all lines. If John D. is in fear of a panic, the rest of us ought to be scared almost to death.

Here and There.

A scrubwoman employed by a New York pawnbroker is said to have stolen plunder worth $15,000.

Twenty-seven new cases and seven deaths from yellow fever was the Sunday record in New Orleans.

At a social party at Morristown, Tenn., Hiram Sams was shot and killed.

Jake Anderson, son of M. D. Anderson, of Junction City, who left home mysteriously about five years ago, has arrived at St. Louis and will be home in a few days to spend a short time.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Louise Park, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Park, of Middlesboro, and Mr. Henry Terrell, of Columbus, Miss., will be married Oct. 11.

The item in our last issue that Mr. Ollie Fields and Miss Anderson would marry September 16th, was untrue. We were imposed on by some smart Alec, who forged Mr. W. H. Martin's name to a letter telling of the approaching nuptials and asking that it be published. The writer may yet find that the fun was not so funny after all.

John Gosser has been appointed postmaster at Duly, Russell county.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Felix has given $1,000 to Williamsburg Institute.

Rev. Gilbert Glass will preach at Walnut Flat at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. L. M. Omer is assisting Eld. J. G. Livingston in a meeting at Goshen. Preaching at 7 each evening.

Fire at Franklin Tenn., destroyed the First Presbyterian church and other property, the losses aggregating $19,000.

Rev. William T. Capers, of Trinity church, Asheville, N. C., has been selected for the rectorship of Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington.

The conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Covington passed a resolution calling on candidates for the ministry to state to what extent they use tobacco. Bishop Candler suggested that there was nothing in the church's doctrine against the use of tobacco.

The following appeared in the Table correspondence of the Harrodsburg Herald: Rev. Mason, of Lincoln county, preached 11 sermons at Bethel, just a week before the Association at Glen's Creek. Some people think he is far ahead of any preacher they ever heard. We think he is a good Christian man and does well considering his opportunities. But as the old darkey told his master when he preached to him alone and asked him what he thought of his sermon, he said, "Well boss I have heard better." If Lincoln county has such a preacher we have not formed his acquaintance or even heard of him. Must be a mistake somewhere.

Escaped Death.

It is not an uncommon experience for us to get a letter describing how the writer escaped death by taking Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin for some violent and dangerous stomach or bowel inflammation. The gentle, soothing, curative, purificative action of this pleasant syrup is without any equal in the science of medicine. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

Ten persons were killed and 30 injured when a New York elevated car jumped the track and fell into the street below.

One hundred and twenty persons were hurt during a panic at a cattle show at Salamanca, Spain.

A presumably incendiary fire at Glennville, Ga., destroyed 11 stores and one dwelling.

The September term of the Boyle Circuit Court begun at Danville yesterday.
